

This document has been created to provide background information solely for the purpose of developing Butte County General Plan 2030. It is not intended to provide information for owners, buyers or sellers of property on which they might make purchase or development decisions. Although every attempt has been made to provide 100 percent accurate information, there may be errors in this document, and conditions will also change with time. Therefore, owners, buyers and sellers should not make assumptions about land values, conditions, land transactions or development proposals based on this document. Instead, they should verify current conditions with Butte County Department of Development Services staff.

Copyright 2007 Butte County

Butte County General Plan

Setting & Trends Report Public Draft

2030

